

Mr. Amorpol Huvanandana, CEO of Moreloop

Amorpol previously co-founded an international VC seeded and now series A fresh ingredient marketplace startup, Freshket.co, and worked there for a year as CFO. Currently, he co-founds and operates moreloop to solve the leftover fabrics using an online platform. He has an avid landscape of ASEAN trade flows from his background as a regional corporate credit underwriter with Atradius. While founding moreloop, he also headed a circular economy research on Thailand's PET and Aluminium material flow with Gone Adventuring. His vision is to turn waste landfills into a sustainable material market.
