

Moderator, Christy Owen, Chief of Party, USAID Green Invest Asia

Christy serves as the Chief of Party for USAID Green Invest Asia, implemented by the global NGO, PACT, for which she serves as Thailand Country Director. She has spent the past 18 years designing and implementing environmental management, biodiversity conservation and climate change projects in the Philippines, Venezuela, El Salvador, Equatorial Guinea, and the lower Mekong region.

As Chief of Party for the USAID-funded Mekong Partnership for the Environment regional program from 2014-2017, she led a multi-disciplinary team to improve social and environmental safeguards for infrastructure investment across the five Lower Mekong countries. She was Deputy Chief of Party for USAID's Mekong Adaptation and Resilience to Climate Change project in Thailand. As the Natural Resources Technical Area Manager for the Environment and Energy Sector at Development Alternatives Inc. (DAI), she led a multimillion-dollar portfolio spread across Asia, Africa and Latin America. She has worked in senior management in Venezuela and was a Project Administrator for an environmental governance project in the Philippines, both for USAID. Christy holds a master's degree in Latin American Studies with a focus on public policy and development communications from University of Texas at Austin.