

Speaker's Biography

Mongkhon TANGSIRIWIT

Cluster BVP, Strategic Accounts
Thailand / Myanmar / Laos
Schneider (Thailand) Limited

Mongkhon Tangsirivit is currently Cluster Business Vice President of Strategic Accounts Division for Schneider Electric Thailand, Myanmar and Laos. He leads a passionate team to provide the leading technology, software and services to end users on key segments including power and grid to make the energy safe and reliable, efficient and sustainable.

Mongkhon joined Schneider Electric Thailand since 2003 and worked in various roles from engineering, sales management, project management, key account management and leadership roles. He had been leading the project management and tendering supporting business growth in energy, industry, and data center area. He also plans and develops the digitization strategy with key partners on smart grid and new energy market.