

Arvind Narula, impact investor, Chairman and founder of the Urmatt Group, is a pioneer of the organic agriculture industry in Thailand, Argentina and Laos.

In over three decades he has developed one of the world's most successful contract farming models.

Arvind has invested in several innovative and successful projects in the field of agriculture and agricultural value added products and has advised companies globally in organic agriculture. His impact-award winning group companies are focused on benefitting the poorest farmers.

Arvind is past chair of YPO for S.E. Asia.

Arvind speaks seven languages and graduated in Economics from Heidelberg and Paris and the Sasin Institute of the Chulalongkorn University.